

Programme: Ballistic missile and area air defence

The event will take place at Svanemøllens Kaserne, Ryvangs Allé 1, 2100 Copenhagen, building 75 on the 22nd of February, 3-5 pm.

Welcome: 3.00-3.05 pm

- Secretary General Lars Bangert Struwe welcomes everyone and introduces the speakers.

A Danish perspective: 3.05-3.20 pm

- Commander Peter R. Sønderkjøge-Hansen gives a short introduction and accounts for the possible Danish contribution to ballistic missile and/or area air defence.

An American perspective: 3.20-4.00 pm

- Lieutenant Colonel (retired) Pat 'Tiny' McNelis provides us with insights on ballistic missile and area air defence from his expertise as Director of the Joint BMD Training & Education Center, Colorado.

A German perspective: 4.00-4.30 pm

- Commander, S.G., Klaus Bohnenstengel presents a perspective on ballistic missile defence, area air defence, and their integration in the German armed forces.

Q & A: 4.30-5.00